LLM General

1 Year Full Time | 2 Year Part Time

My name is Owen O'Doherty and I graduated from the LLM General in January 2015. Deciding to study for the LLM General was one of the best decisions I have ever made. What I particularly liked about the programme was the flexibility of being able to choose what subjects to study.

I chose a number of international commercial areas such as Comparative Property Law, International Business Transactions, International Protection of Intellectual Property Rights, the Law of Credit and Security as well as modules from the Masters in Human Rights in Criminal Justice including Policing and Human Rights and International Criminal Law.

The LLM allowed me to deepen my understanding in a whole range of areas and also helped me to move forward in my legal studies and motivated me to prepare and successfully pass the entrance exams to The Honorable Society of King's Inns in Dublin, where I am currently studying to qualify as a barrister. My educational experience in studying for the LLM General has been hugely positive and has been enhanced by the commitment, expertise and support of the law lecturers at the University of Limerick.
