

WOMENS STUDIES OPEN FORUM AUTUMN AND SPRING SEMESTERS 2007-08

18 September: Frances White, Kingston University

Iris Murdoch and Hannah Arendt: Two Women in Dark Times

6 November: Agnes Walsh, Newfoundland Poet Laureate

Poetry Reading (organised together with the Department of Languages and Cultural Studies)

13 November: Piia Varis, University of Jyväskylä, Finland

Maud Gonne's Autobiography and History:
The Contextualisation of a Servant of the Queen

27 November: Caoilfhionn Ni Bheachain, University of Limerick

Female Phantoms: The Ghost Pamphlets of Cumann na mBan

29 January: Geertje Mak, Institute for Gender Studies, Radboud University Nijmegen

Sex and Self in a Praxiographic Approach of the History of the Body

11 March: Maureen O'Connor, NUI Galway

Frances Power Cobbe, Political Animal

26 March: Carmen Kuhling, University of Limerick, and Kieran Keohane, University

College Cork (in coordination with Sociology Seminar Series)

Globalisation, Quality of Life and Work/Family Balance in Ireland

1 April: Heather Laird, University College Cork

The "Placing" and Politics of Elizabeth Bowen in Contemporary Irish Literary and Cultural Criticism

8 April: Jane Kilby, University of Salford

Incest: The Romance of the Notion

8 April: Susan Cohen, Parkes Institute for Jewish/Non-Jewish Relations,
University of Southampton

(in coordination with the Centre for Irish-German Studies)

German Academic Women Refugees and the British Federation of University Women, 1933-1943