

women's studies at UL
Spring Seminar Series 2006

Anomalous Bodies, Sexuality and Governmentality:
Difference Engendering Trouble

Dr. Margrit Shildrick

Date: Tuesday April 4

Venue: CO-072 (Main Bldg)

Time: 12 noon

Margrit Shildrick is currently Reader in Gender Studies at Queens University Belfast, where she offers courses in feminist and cultural theory. She is also Adjunct Professor of Critical Disability Studies at York University, Toronto. Her publications include Leaky Bodies and Boundaries: Feminism, (Bio)ethics and Postmodernism (1997), and Embodying the Monster: Encounters with the Vulnerable Self (2002).