

The Research Skills Masters Programme

These programmes introduce students and staff to key areas including research methods, the literature review; intellectual property, publishing, ethics, project management and career planning.

There are 14 courses within this programme:

- Career Planning in the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences
- Career Planning in the Sciences
- Selecting a Conference, Presenting and Networking
- Ethics 1: Good Research Practice
- Ethics 2: Working with Human Subjects
- Intellectual Property (IP) in the Research Context
- Research Methods in Literature Review
- Project Management in the Research Context
- Getting Published in the Arts
- Getting Published in the Sciences
- Research Methods in the Arts
- Research Methods in the Sciences
- Managing your Research Supervisor or Principal Investigator
- Research Methods in the Social Sciences

Learners are self-directed and manage own learning to complete the programme at times that are suitable to themselves. You must register online to gain access, using your UL username and password. Please ensure that you complete the quizzes at the end of each module.

If you experience technical difficulty, please email padraig.hyland@ul.ie.