

The School of Law invites you to attend a presentation by:

Robert Mortell (Accountant & Tax Consultant)

Titled: "Climbing Everest- Achieving Ambition"

Thursday 16th February 2017

Time and Location: 10.30am -12.00pm - Library Boardroom

Starting with Tea & Coffee refreshments

RSVP: Josephine.conway@ul.ie

“An insight into the preparations and complications of reaching the summit of Mt Everest, and how teams succeed in some of the world’s most inhospitable environments”.

Robert Mortell is Ireland’s youngest and most recent mountaineer to summit Mt Everest in May 2016 after two consecutive years of catastrophe in the Himalayas. An accomplished concert harpist, newly-qualified accountant and tax consultant and UL Law School graduate.